

Directories

The following settings are available on the tab:

Path to downloaded data — specifies the path where files downloaded from the remote databases will be stored.

Path for temporary files — the path where will be stored temporary files.

File storage — the path where will be stored UGENE files.