Fragments of the New Molecule

The next step is to add required fragments to the new molecule contents.

To add fragments select them in the list of available fragments and click the Add button or by double-click on a fragment.

To add all the fragments click the Add All button.