Changing Schema Appearance

You can select to either show or hide a schema title and description on the Scene by checking / unchecking the Show title and Show description items in the View Mode toolbar menu.

On the image below the both title and description are displayed:

Selecting an element direction changes its appearance. See Managing Strands for details.