Exporting Selected Sequence Region

Open a sequence object in the Sequence View and select a region by pressing and moving the left mouse button over the sequence.

Use the Export Export Selected sequence region context menu item to save selection into a file of a sequence format.

The Export Selected Sequence Region dialog will appear which is similar to the Export Selected Sequences dialog described here.