

Exporting Alignment without Chromatograms

To export alignment without chromatogram use the Actions→Alignment→Export alignment without chromatogram main menu or the same context menu item. The following dialog will appear:

Here it is possible to specify the result file location, to select a sequence file format, optionally include consensus and add the created document to the current project.